

Tre Maison Dasan

Join San Francisco Unified School District's Office of Counseling & Post-Secondary Success for a FREE community movie screening and conversation of TRE MAISON DASAN.

TRE MAISON DASAN is an intimate portrait of three boys growing up, each with a parent in prison. Told directly through the child's perspective, the film is an exploration of relationships and separation, masculinity, and coming of age in America when a parent is behind bars.

TRE MAISON DASAN/ NATIONAL VISITING DAYS
MARCH 14 2019
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

TRE MAISON DASAN becomes NATIONALLY AVAILABLE in a little more than 2 WEEKS!!!

Visiting Day is one of the most important days of the week, month, or sometimes year for children and parents separated from their loved ones due to incarceration.

With the national broadcast premiere of “Tre Maison Dasan” on PBS / Independent Lens on April 1st, 2019, we want to help make that day happen for families across the country, strengthen family bonds, and prompt a national reflection about the the rippling effects of mass incarceration in America. We’re looking for partners to take action and join us in shar-ing this experience with as many children and families across the country as possible.

On April 1, the film will be broadcast nationwide on PBS’ Independent Lens. To find your local affiliate’s airtime, visit <http://www.pbs.org/independentlens/tv-schedule/#schedule-local> and select “Change Your Local Station.”

Then, from April 2-14, the film will be freely available to stream on PBS.org!

Invite friends, family, or bring together people who are affected by mass incarceration to watch the film together and use one of our viewing guides (available soon on TREMAISON-DASAN.com).

Share your events on social media, using #NationalVisitingDays #TreMaisonDasan, and connect to us on all platforms with @TreMaisonDasan
