

K. Guzman SFSU

Felicia Zhang
Chinese American
Pairs Ice Skater

Felicia Zhang (1993-) loved spinning, dancing, and dashing around the ice rink at a birthday party when she was seven. With the help of her parents, friends, and coaches, Felicia became a pairs ice skater, which is the most beautiful and dangerous type of ice skating. Two skaters must perform gracefully, often twirling and jumping side by side with dance moves. They sometimes hold on to each other while spinning around and around. Felicia's partner might throw her and she must twist high in the air and land on one foot. She won a bronze medal in 2013 and a silver medal in 2014 in the pairs skating event in the U.S. Nationals. Although she did not win any medals in the 2014 Olympics, Felicia loved competing for the USA.