9:00 AM Welcome from TACT

9:10 AM Session 1

The Iron Road and the Steam-Breathing Dragon with Russell Low

Author Russell Low will present two of his most recent books. Iron Road & Steam-Breathing Dragon recounts the journey of two brothers from Guangdong who came to build the western segment of the railroad.

9:55 AM Break/Transition

10:05 AM Session 2

Participants have the choice to attend any of the sessions they prefer.

Moderator: Nick Bartel

This workshop presents scaffolded social studies resources including literature for 6th and 7th grade - ancient and medieval history. Teachers will see and receive extensive slide sets, videos, and handouts to supplement and integrate their SS/History and ELA classes. It will be appropriate for ELD and all social studies classes using InquirEd, TCI and other programs.

Moderator: Cynthia Cen

This session will walk educators through existing TACT curricular resources, including but not limited to Cantonese/Mandarin bilingual materials, video and PowerPoint resources on Angel Island, Railroads, AAPI Court Cases, Equal Education and TACT Recommended Reading Lists (PK-12).

Moderator: Katie Quan

This workshop will introduce the social justice history and purpose of zines, how to integrate them into any class (ie: Ethnic Studies, ELA, Art, and Social Studies), and conclude with a hands-on demonstration. This workshop is best for elementary to high school.

Moderators: Anita Wu & Mary Li

The immigration category was added to the TACT Angel Island book list to build background knowledge and introduce local and US history to our preK-5 students. Sample read-alouds from TACT's resource list will be presented. This workshop is appropriate for PK to grades 5.

10:45 AM Break/Transition

11:00 AM Session 3

Mamie Tape Fights to Go to School with Traci Huahn

Author Traci Huahn offers a framework for using her picture book, Mamie Tape Fights to Go to School, which tells how a 8-year-old Chinese American changemaker fought to attend public school in San Francisco in the 1880s. Following a read-aloud of the book, Traci will delve into her extensive research, provide additional background about the Tape family's historic California Supreme Court case, Tape v. Hurley, and put the case within the context of the long journey to end school segregation in the United States.

11:45 AM Closing

Evaluations with book choice, book signing, books available for purchase
